Important Information - Please read the following information carefully to expedite the issuance of your renewal application:

Bail corporations will need to attach a list of current officers, directors and stockholders.

Pursuant to the California Insurance Code (CIC) Section 1810 (a) (4) and (5), all shareholders, officers and directors of a corporation shall be licensed bail agents, and shall be disclosed to the department. Any sale or transfer of stock or other interests in the corporation shall require the prior approval of the California Department of Insurance (CDI). Form LIC 437-25, Bail Agent Change of Corporate Stockholder, Officer or Director, can be accessed from the CDI website at www.insurance.ca.gov.

The bail agent renewal fee is based on the number of active surety company appointments on file. If you wish to terminate any appointments, attach a request with your original signature to your renewal application, indicating which surety company appointment(s) you wish to cancel.

If you are a bail agent and you have no active surety company appointment on file, you will need to submit a surety company appointment along with a signed form filing and a fee of $241, in addition to the renewal fee.

A valid bail bond or deposit is required to be on file with the CDI in order to renew any bail license.

If you have moved, use the CDI online address change system or file the CDI address change form LIC 447-7, which can be accessed from the CDI website at www.insurance.ca.gov.

All fees are filing fees and are not refundable whether or not the renewal application is acted upon per Section 1751.5 of the CIC.

The application with appropriate fees must be postmarked by June 30, 2009. If the license is not renewed by June 30, 2009, the licensee will have to refile. Until June 30, of the next succeeding year the filing fee shall be twice the normal filing fee.

For information regarding this renewal call (916) 492-3035.

WARNING: The terms of this renewal may be limited by the Family Support Law, Welfare and Institutions Code Section 11350.6.
